

LOCAL MENTION

THE WEATHER.

Forecast Till 8 p.m. Sunday.
For the District of Columbia, Maryland and Virginia, light showers today or tonight, followed by fair during the greater portion of Sunday; easterly winds, shifting to southerly; slightly cooler than today.

Condition of the Water.
Temperature and condition of water at 8 a.m.: Great Falls, temperature, 52; condition, 27; receiving reservoir, temperature, 53; condition, at north connection, 34; condition at south connection, 36; distributing reservoir, temperature, 53; condition at inlet gate house, 33; effluent gate house, 29.

Tides Tomorrow.
High tide, 5:33 p.m. Low tide, 11:44 a.m. p. m.
5:10 a.m. 5:33 p.m. 11:44 a.m. p. m.

CANDY FREE! FREE CANDY!
We will present to every customer on Saturday buying Tea, Coffee, Baking Powder, Condensed Milk, Flavoring Extracts, or Spices a box of Elegant Candy. Don't fail to be on hand Saturday. Our 3c, 5c, and 25c Java and Mocha Coffees stand unequalled. The Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Co., 501 and 503 7th st. N.E. H. H. Brown, manager.

Montgomery Sycamore Island Club. Members and friends invited, Sunday, November 5, 1 o'clock.

Bury's Pissiswase cures all kidney diseases.

Now is the time to sit for your Pictures for the holidays, before the rush gets too great, and Price's is the place to get the best. 723 7th st. n.w.

For rent, elegant bay window house, all modern improvements, $35.00, 115 14th st. s.e.

The Great Rush still continues at the Empire Carpet Cleaning Works, 615-655 Massachusetts ave. n.w. Carpets made moth-proof free of charge.

CITY AND DISTRICT

AMUSEMENTS TONIGHT.

Albough's Grand Opera House. —Robt. Gayler in "Sport McAlister."

New National Theater. —"Across the Potomac."

Academy of Music. —Miss Julia Marlowe in "Much Ado About Nothing."

Harris' Bijou Theater. —"Outcasts of a Great City."

Kernan's Lyceum Theater. —"Hyde's Comedy."

Wonderland, 7th street between D and E streets northwest. —Entertainments day and night.

Lincoln Relies, 156 10th st. n.w. —Open daily except Sunday, 10 to 11 p.m. Monday and Friday, 8 to 10 p.m.

First Baptist Church, 15th and O sts. n.e. —Lecture by Prof. J. L. Ewell, "Ezra's Day."

EXCURSIONS TOMORROW.

Colonial Beach. —Macalester leaves at 10 a.m.

Harry Randall for Chapel Point, Colonial Beach and river landings at 7 a.m.

Tally-ho coach line from 511 13th street 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. for Arlington, Cabin Point bridge and all points of interest.

THE CYCLOPE SUFFERERS.

Miss Clara Barton Will Explain the Situation Monday Night.

Having just returned from the Sea Islands, South Carolina, where upwards of 30,000 persons are suffering from the ravages of the recent cyclone, and being requested to explain the situation on the islands before returning here, Miss Clara Barton, president of the American National Red Cross, has consented to give a lecture on the situation on Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the headquarters of the Red Cross, corner of I and F streets.

A RUMOR DENIED.

The Republican Ticket to Be Supported in Montgomery County.

The rumors that there were dissensions in the Republican party in Montgomery county, which would possibly lead to the cutting of certain members of the ticket, are entirely unfounded. The committee in some sections of the county were put to rest Thursday, so far as the county committee could accomplish the act. The Republican county committee met at Rockville Thursday night, and many a large attendance. Every district was represented and many prominent Republicans of the county not members of the committee were present to lend their aid. The question of the rumored intention to cut the ticket was brought up by Gen. Albia Russell, who was charged with the denunciation of the rumor as false and malicious. The entire ticket, he said, would receive the support of every true Republican. It was a ticket nominated unanimously by the convention and there was no reason why it should not receive unanimous support. Others present spoke in a similar vein, criticizing the rumor of dissension as entirely unfounded. After transacting routine business the committee adjourned.

SMALL AND CHRYSANTHEMUMS.

The Annual Exhibition to Be Opened to the Public on Monday.

Those who fall to see the chrysanthemum exhibit of John H. Small & Sons, which began Monday night, will find the exhibition of these gentlemen, who inaugurated the fall exhibitions of chrysanthemums in Washington, will this year surpass all former attempts. No one who saw the magnificent inaugural ball decorations will doubt the ability or resources of this old and reputable firm. In the several times of previous exhibitions, they next week exhibit superb specimens of the finest flowers—roses, orchids and chrysanthemums to be had in this country. Specimens of the most beautiful decoration will also be given in connection with electricity, presenting effects novel and beautiful in the highest degree.

Death of Wm. Talbert.

Mr. Wm. Talbert, one of the oldest residents of the Navy Yard section of the city, died Thursday evening at his residence, 1255 10th street southeast, aged seventy-nine years.

Mr. Talbert was born near Hadenburg, Md., but came from the trade of ship carpenter in the yard he worked there a long series of years, and under Lincoln's first and Hayes' administration he filled the position of master ship carpenter, and as such was busily employed, doing important work for the various fleets during the war. He, while at the navy yard, perfected an important improvement in marine rail-roading, for which he made a claim on the government, and Congress referred the matter to the Court of Claims, and a decree was passed in his favor, allowing him a percentage of the earnings of the improvement, and this not being satisfactory to him he appealed to the Supreme Court of the United States, where the case is now pending.

Mr. Talbert served several times as an alderman in the boards of aldermen and common council. He leaves four sons and a daughter—George W. and Alexander being grocers, Thomas a retired feed dealer, and William a ship carpenter, and Mrs. Dubois, wife of Mr. W. Dubois of the White House. He leaves considerable property. The funeral will be held on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Robberies Reported.

Larcenies have been reported at police headquarters as follows: A silver bracelet, $35 10th street northwest, reports a gold watch, chain and ring stolen from her house on Thursday. Rosa Finkelshtein, 203 Brightwood avenue, the larceny of six pairs of gloves from show window yesterday.

Thos. L. Hess, the larceny of set of harness from stable in rear of 813 North Capitol street last night.

Representative Train's Loss.

Representative Crain of Texas yesterday drew his month's pay, $47, and put it, as he thought, in the watch pocket of his pants, and when he reached his hotel, the Randall, it was gone. He thinks that he had unwittingly placed it inside the bag and it slipped down the pants.

The Greatest Sale Ever Held in Washington.

Monday at 11 a.m. Sloan's, 1407 G street, the great sale of European interior decorations, gathered from all sections of the world, will continue in full force to the entire week, at 11 a.m. and 3 p.m.

It is without doubt the greatest collection of the kind ever offered at public auction in the United States.—Adv't.

IN MUSICAL CIRCLES.

Prospect of the Most Brilliant Season in Many Years.

Concerts That Are Already Announced and Others That Are in Contemplation—Local Societies Active.

Indications multiply that the coming winter will be the most attractive musical season that has been known in Washington. Besides the series of Boston Symphony Concerts, the first of which takes place on Monday night, it is expected that Anton Seidl, the great conductor of Wagner, and his excellent orchestra will be here. A series of concerts by Seidl was announced early in the season, but the misfortunes of Mr. Metzger interfered with the carrying out of the arrangement. Now, however, it is understood that negotiations are about completed by which he will come to Convention Hall and give a concert at prices within the reach of all. Then the concert by John Sousa's band at Albaugh's last Sunday night proved that a good band will always draw a large audience, and it is learned that the two German military bands that were at the German village during the world's fair will give a concert here, and further, that the recent Austrian band that played in Old Vienna, and that has met with such success in its concerts in New York, will also come to Washington.

The most important event of the season will be the appearance of the queen of song, Adalinda Patti, who will come here early in December. Mme. Patti will be heard both at the Metropolitan and at the Academy of Music (written especially for her) entitled "Gabriella." There is but one Patti and it will be many years before her equal as a singer and actress will be again heard upon either the concert or operatic stage.

In local circles, the Georgetown Orchestra is at work under its new leader and will seek to maintain the high reputation it has already acquired. It is probable that it will not seek quite so large a force at its public rehearsals this year, but it is understood that an interest has been excited in many members who have not played with the organization for a long time and that they will continue to be regular workers hereafter.

The Philharmonic Club and its series of concerts have already been referred to, and seem to excite a good deal of interest. The members will be presented by a number of a high order, whose ability has been fully recognized in this community. The friends of Mrs. Lent will be glad to hear her since her return from a tour in which she studied to perfect herself as a pianist.

"The Three Dukes," an opera written by Mr. Percy Wainwright of this city, is in active rehearsal and will be presented by a well trained corps of amateurs. The composer is a young man of much musical ability, and he has shown a faculty for writing pleasing and catchy melodies. There are several numbers that will jump into popularity. The concerted numbers will be given with a full orchestra and dash that are very attractive, but yet with a strict regard for the rules of musical composition. The ladies and gentlemen who will present the opera are fully competent to cope with the score, and it is expected that the work of some of the cast will prove an admirable surprise.

The Red Cross Society contemplate an entertainment, the program for which it is understood will be in the hands of Mrs. Mariano Maina. If he has charge of the affair signs of the highest order of merit will be heard.

Then Mr. Sousa first visited Washington with his new band he had only one Washingtonian with him—Mr. Ed. Williams. Thursday he had headed by Mr. Williams, Stanley Lawton and Chas. Kruger, formerly with Mr. Sousa in the Marine Band.

Bischoff has not yet commenced his series of concerts, but it may be anticipated that this season they will be fully up to the mark.

Miss Lotta Mills has arrived in Vienna and resumed her lessons under Lechleitner.

Now that Prof. Kasner is no longer connected with the Georgetown Orchestra it is hardly likely that the Wilhelm Club will have a concert of the organization this season. It is possible that they may have some entertainments under its own auspices.

JEALOUSY AND A KNIFE.

A Cutting Affray That May Result Seriously.

Mary Taylor and Martha Richardson, young colored girls, were standing at the corner of 4th and Trumbull streets yesterday afternoon talking to a colored man named Hill Tibbs when three carts of the Washington Brick Machine Company came along. Arthur Lucas, James West and Louis Rols were the drivers of them. One of the drivers had kept company with Mary Taylor, and he objected to being such in her affections by such a man as Tibbs. He believed it would receive such support. Others present spoke in a similar vein, criticizing the rumor of dissension as entirely unfounded. After transacting routine business the committee adjourned.

Small and Chrysanthemums.

The Annual Exhibition to Be Opened to the Public on Monday.

Those who fall to see the chrysanthemum exhibit of John H. Small & Sons, which began Monday night, will find the exhibition of these gentlemen, who inaugurated the fall exhibitions of chrysanthemums in Washington, will this year surpass all former attempts. No one who saw the magnificent inaugural ball decorations will doubt the ability or resources of this old and reputable firm. In the several times of previous exhibitions, they next week exhibit superb specimens of the finest flowers—roses, orchids and chrysanthemums to be had in this country. Specimens of the most beautiful decoration will also be given in connection with electricity, presenting effects novel and beautiful in the highest degree.

Death of Wm. Talbert.

Mr. Wm. Talbert, one of the oldest residents of the Navy Yard section of the city, died Thursday evening at his residence, 1255 10th street southeast, aged seventy-nine years.

Mr. Talbert was born near Hadenburg, Md., but came from the trade of ship carpenter in the yard he worked there a long series of years, and under Lincoln's first and Hayes' administration he filled the position of master ship carpenter, and as such was busily employed, doing important work for the various fleets during the war. He, while at the navy yard, perfected an important improvement in marine rail-roading, for which he made a claim on the government, and Congress referred the matter to the Court of Claims, and a decree was passed in his favor, allowing him a percentage of the earnings of the improvement, and this not being satisfactory to him he appealed to the Supreme Court of the United States, where the case is now pending.

Mr. Talbert served several times as an alderman in the boards of aldermen and common council. He leaves four sons and a daughter—George W. and Alexander being grocers, Thomas a retired feed dealer, and William a ship carpenter, and Mrs. Dubois, wife of Mr. W. Dubois of the White House. He leaves considerable property. The funeral will be held on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Robberies Reported.

Larcenies have been reported at police headquarters as follows: A silver bracelet, $35 10th street northwest, reports a gold watch, chain and ring stolen from her house on Thursday. Rosa Finkelshtein, 203 Brightwood avenue, the larceny of six pairs of gloves from show window yesterday.

Thos. L. Hess, the larceny of set of harness from stable in rear of 813 North Capitol street last night.

Representative Train's Loss.

Representative Crain of Texas yesterday drew his month's pay, $47, and put it, as he thought, in the watch pocket of his pants, and when he reached his hotel, the Randall, it was gone. He thinks that he had unwittingly placed it inside the bag and it slipped down the pants.

The Greatest Sale Ever Held in Washington.

Monday at 11 a.m. Sloan's, 1407 G street, the great sale of European interior decorations, gathered from all sections of the world, will continue in full force to the entire week, at 11 a.m. and 3 p.m.

It is without doubt the greatest collection of the kind ever offered at public auction in the United States.—Adv't.

CASE GOES OVER.

The Alleged Assault on a Scholar by a Teacher.

The superintendent of the colored schools as well as the trustees and several teachers occupied seats in the Police Court this morning, being interested in the case in which an assault on a small school boy was charged. The Miss Sarah Jane Jennifer, a teacher in the Slater building, appeared as defendant. Moses Stevens, the boy claimed to have been injured, was not present in court, being confined to his bed.

Mr. Mulwoney appeared for the prosecution and Lawyer Campbell Carrington represented the defense.

When the case was called Mrs. Stevens, mother of the child, Dr. Gaines, Rev. W. Bishop Johnson and an army of school soldiers, the first of which was Wagner, and his excellent orchestra will be here. A series of concerts by Seidl was announced early in the season, but the misfortunes of Mr. Metzger interfered with the carrying out of the arrangement. Now, however, it is understood that negotiations are about completed by which he will come to Convention Hall and give a concert at prices within the reach of all. Then the concert by John Sousa's band at Albaugh's last Sunday night proved that a good band will always draw a large audience, and it is learned that the two German military bands that were at the German village during the world's fair will give a concert here, and further, that the recent Austrian band that played in Old Vienna, and that has met with such success in its concerts in New York, will also come to Washington.

The most important event of the season will be the appearance of the queen of song, Adalinda Patti, who will come here early in December. Mme. Patti will be heard both at the Metropolitan and at the Academy of Music (written especially for her) entitled "Gabriella." There is but one Patti and it will be many years before her equal as a singer and actress will be again heard upon either the concert or operatic stage.

In local circles, the Georgetown Orchestra is at work under its new leader and will seek to maintain the high reputation it has already acquired. It is probable that it will not seek quite so large a force at its public rehearsals this year, but it is understood that an interest has been excited in many members who have not played with the organization for a long time and that they will continue to be regular workers hereafter.

The Philharmonic Club and its series of concerts have already been referred to, and seem to excite a good deal of interest. The members will be presented by a number of a high order, whose ability has been fully recognized in this community. The friends of Mrs. Lent will be glad to hear her since her return from a tour in which she studied to perfect herself as a pianist.

"The Three Dukes," an opera written by Mr. Percy Wainwright of this city, is in active rehearsal and will be presented by a well trained corps of amateurs. The composer is a young man of much musical ability, and he has shown a faculty for writing pleasing and catchy melodies. There are several numbers that will jump into popularity. The concerted numbers will be given with a full orchestra and dash that are very attractive, but yet with a strict regard for the rules of musical composition. The ladies and gentlemen who will present the opera are fully competent to cope with the score, and it is expected that the work of some of the cast will prove an admirable surprise.

The Red Cross Society contemplate an entertainment, the program for which it is understood will be in the hands of Mrs. Mariano Maina. If he has charge of the affair signs of the highest order of merit will be heard.

Then Mr. Sousa first visited Washington with his new band he had only one Washingtonian with him—Mr. Ed. Williams. Thursday he had headed by Mr. Williams, Stanley Lawton and Chas. Kruger, formerly with Mr. Sousa in the Marine Band.

Bischoff has not yet commenced his series of concerts, but it may be anticipated that this season they will be fully up to the mark.

Miss Lotta Mills has arrived in Vienna and resumed her lessons under Lechleitner.

Now that Prof. Kasner is no longer connected with the Georgetown Orchestra it is hardly likely that the Wilhelm Club will have a concert of the organization this season. It is possible that they may have some entertainments under its own auspices.

JEALOUSY AND A KNIFE.

A Cutting Affray That May Result Seriously.

Mary Taylor and Martha Richardson, young colored girls, were standing at the corner of 4th and Trumbull streets yesterday afternoon talking to a colored man named Hill Tibbs when three carts of the Washington Brick Machine Company came along. Arthur Lucas, James West and Louis Rols were the drivers of them. One of the drivers had kept company with Mary Taylor, and he objected to being such in her affections by such a man as Tibbs. He believed it would receive such support. Others present spoke in a similar vein, criticizing the rumor of dissension as entirely unfounded. After transacting routine business the committee adjourned.

Small and Chrysanthemums.

The Annual Exhibition to Be Opened to the Public on Monday.

Those who fall to see the chrysanthemum exhibit of John H. Small & Sons, which began Monday night, will find the exhibition of these gentlemen, who inaugurated the fall exhibitions of chrysanthemums in Washington, will this year surpass all former attempts. No one who saw the magnificent inaugural ball decorations will doubt the ability or resources of this old and reputable firm. In the several times of previous exhibitions, they next week exhibit superb specimens of the finest flowers—roses, orchids and chrysanthemums to be had in this country. Specimens of the most beautiful decoration will also be given in connection with electricity, presenting effects novel and beautiful in the highest degree.

Death of Wm. Talbert.

Mr. Wm. Talbert, one of the oldest residents of the Navy Yard section of the city, died Thursday evening at his residence, 1255 10th street southeast, aged seventy-nine years.

Mr. Talbert was born near Hadenburg, Md., but came from the trade of ship carpenter in the yard he worked there a long series of years, and under Lincoln's first and Hayes' administration he filled the position of master ship carpenter, and as such was busily employed, doing important work for the various fleets during the war. He, while at the navy yard, perfected an important improvement in marine rail-roading, for which he made a claim on the government, and Congress referred the matter to the Court of Claims, and a decree was passed in his favor, allowing him a percentage of the earnings of the improvement, and this not being satisfactory to him he appealed to the Supreme Court of the United States, where the case is now pending.

Mr. Talbert served several times as an alderman in the boards of aldermen and common council. He leaves four sons and a daughter—George W. and Alexander being grocers, Thomas a retired feed dealer, and William a ship carpenter, and Mrs. Dubois, wife of Mr. W. Dubois of the White House. He leaves considerable property. The funeral will be held on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Robberies Reported.

Larcenies have been reported at police headquarters as follows: A silver bracelet, $35 10th street northwest, reports a gold watch, chain and ring stolen from her house on Thursday. Rosa Finkelshtein, 203 Brightwood avenue, the larceny of six pairs of gloves from show window yesterday.

Thos. L. Hess, the larceny of set of harness from stable in rear of 813 North Capitol street last night.

Representative Train's Loss.

Representative Crain of Texas yesterday drew his month's pay, $47, and put it, as he thought, in the watch pocket of his pants, and when he reached his hotel, the Randall, it was gone. He thinks that he had unwittingly placed it inside the bag and it slipped down the pants.

The Greatest Sale Ever Held in Washington.

Monday at 11 a.m. Sloan's, 1407 G street, the great sale of European interior decorations, gathered from all sections of the world, will continue in full force to the entire week, at 11 a.m. and 3 p.m.

It is without doubt the greatest collection of the kind ever offered at public auction in the United States.—Adv't.

SHORT AND UNEVENTFUL.

Nothing Startling Looked for in This Special Cable Dispatch to the Evening Star.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—The autumn session of parliament opened quietly, and was in striking contrast to the closing scenes of the last session. It promises to be of short duration, as the program is almost non-existent, and the attitude of the opposition has been decidedly conciliatory.

Those members of the opposition who were reluctantly compelled to attend have not, in their conversations in the lobby, concealed their annoyance and disapproval of the government's policy.

And the government's policy is to prevent the government from fulfilling their promise to the English masses of English legislation this year, and respectfully remarked that Joseph Chamberlain, who was mainly responsible for the absurd obstruction, is resting in America, while his followers have been obliged to curtail their holidays.

In view of this collapse of the opposition the liberals are confident that the Parliaments bill will pass its second reading on Monday, and that on Tuesday the second reading of the Home Office bill will be taken.

John Redmond's letter, which has been widely reprinted here, announcing the conditions of his support of Gladstone, has been a welcome relief from the tedious debate in the house of commons. His proposition is that the government should not have been warring with the opposition, who have been warring to rank him almost as one of themselves in opposition to the government.

His present proposals are regarded as indicating the relinquishment of his former extreme demands, and it is pointed out that the government's policy is to prevent the government from fulfilling their promise to the English masses of English legislation this year, and respectfully remarked that Joseph Chamberlain, who was mainly responsible for the absurd obstruction, is resting in America, while his followers have been obliged to curtail their holidays.

And the government's policy is to prevent the government from fulfilling their promise to the English masses of English legislation this year, and respectfully remarked that Joseph Chamberlain, who was mainly responsible for the absurd obstruction, is resting in America, while his followers have been obliged to curtail their holidays.

And the government's policy is to prevent the government from fulfilling their promise to the English masses of English legislation this year, and respectfully remarked that Joseph Chamberlain, who was mainly responsible for the absurd obstruction, is resting in America, while his followers have been obliged to curtail their holidays.

And the government's policy is to prevent the government from fulfilling their promise to the English masses of English legislation this year, and respectfully remarked that Joseph Chamberlain, who was mainly responsible for the absurd obstruction, is resting in America, while his followers have been obliged to curtail their holidays.

And the government's policy is to prevent the government from fulfilling their promise to the English masses of English legislation this year, and respectfully remarked that Joseph Chamberlain, who was mainly responsible for the absurd obstruction, is resting in America, while his followers have been obliged to curtail their holidays.

And the government's policy is to prevent the government from fulfilling their promise to the English masses of English legislation this year, and respectfully remarked that Joseph Chamberlain, who was mainly responsible for the absurd obstruction, is resting in America, while his followers have been obliged to curtail their holidays.

And the government's policy is to prevent the government from fulfilling their promise to the English masses of English legislation this year, and respectfully remarked that Joseph Chamberlain, who was mainly responsible for the absurd obstruction, is resting in America, while his followers have been obliged to curtail their holidays.

And the government's policy is to prevent the government from fulfilling their promise to the English masses of English legislation this year, and respectfully remarked that Joseph Chamberlain, who was mainly responsible for the absurd obstruction, is resting in America, while his followers have been obliged to curtail their holidays.

And the government's policy is to prevent the government from fulfilling their promise to the English masses of English legislation this year, and respectfully remarked that Joseph Chamberlain, who was mainly responsible for the absurd obstruction, is resting in America, while his followers have been obliged to curtail their holidays.

And the government's policy is to prevent the government from fulfilling their promise to the English masses of English legislation this year, and respectfully remarked that Joseph Chamberlain, who was mainly responsible for the absurd obstruction, is resting in America, while his followers have been obliged to curtail their holidays.

And the government's policy is to prevent the government from fulfilling their promise to the English masses of English legislation this year, and respectfully remarked that Joseph Chamberlain, who was mainly responsible for the absurd obstruction, is resting in America, while his followers have been obliged to curtail their holidays.

And the government's policy is to prevent the government from fulfilling their promise to the English masses of English legislation this year, and respectfully remarked that Joseph Chamberlain, who was mainly responsible for the absurd obstruction, is resting in America, while his followers have been obliged to curtail their holidays.

And the government's policy is to prevent the government from fulfilling their promise to the English masses of English legislation this year, and respectfully remarked that Joseph Chamberlain, who was mainly responsible for the absurd obstruction, is resting in America, while his followers have been obliged to curtail their holidays.

And the government's policy is to prevent the government from fulfilling their promise to the English masses of English legislation this year, and respectfully remarked that Joseph Chamberlain, who was mainly responsible for the absurd obstruction, is resting in America, while his followers have been obliged to curtail their holidays.

And the government's policy is to prevent the government from fulfilling their promise to the English masses of English legislation this year, and respectfully remarked that Joseph Chamberlain, who was mainly responsible for the absurd obstruction, is resting in America, while his followers have been obliged to curtail their holidays.

And the government's policy is to prevent the government from fulfilling their promise to the English masses of English legislation this year, and respectfully remarked that Joseph Chamberlain, who was mainly responsible for the absurd obstruction, is resting in America, while his followers have been obliged to curtail their holidays.

And the government's policy is to prevent the government from fulfilling their promise to the English masses of English legislation this year, and respectfully remarked that Joseph Chamberlain, who was mainly responsible for the absurd obstruction, is resting in America, while his followers have been obliged to curtail their holidays.

And the government's policy is to prevent the government from fulfilling their promise to the English masses of English legislation this year, and respectfully remarked that Joseph Chamberlain, who was mainly responsible for the absurd obstruction, is resting in America, while his followers have been obliged to curtail their holidays.

And the government's policy is to prevent the government from fulfilling their promise to the English masses of English legislation this year, and respectfully remarked that Joseph Chamberlain, who was mainly responsible for the absurd obstruction, is resting in America, while his followers have been obliged to curtail their holidays.

And the government's policy is to prevent the government from fulfilling their promise to the English masses of English legislation this year, and respectfully remarked that Joseph Chamberlain, who was mainly responsible for the absurd obstruction, is resting in America, while his followers have been obliged to curtail their holidays.

And the government's policy is to prevent the government from fulfilling their promise to the English masses of English legislation this year, and respectfully remarked that Joseph Chamberlain, who was mainly responsible for the absurd obstruction, is resting in America, while his followers have been obliged to curtail their holidays.

And the government's policy is to prevent the government from fulfilling their promise to the English masses of English legislation this year, and respectfully remarked that Joseph Chamberlain, who was mainly responsible for the absurd obstruction, is resting in America, while his followers have been obliged to curtail their holidays.

And the government's policy is to prevent the government from fulfilling their promise to the English masses of English legislation this year, and respectfully remarked that Joseph Chamberlain, who was mainly responsible for the absurd obstruction, is resting in America, while his followers have been obliged to curtail their holidays.

And the government's policy is to prevent the government from fulfilling their promise to the English masses of English legislation this year, and respectfully remarked that Joseph Chamberlain, who was mainly responsible for the absurd obstruction, is resting in America, while his followers have been obliged to curtail their holidays.

And the government's policy is to prevent the government from fulfilling their promise to the English masses of English legislation this year, and respectfully remarked that Joseph Chamberlain, who was mainly responsible for the absurd obstruction, is resting in America, while his followers have been obliged to curtail their holidays.

And the government's policy is to prevent the government from fulfilling their promise to the English masses of English legislation this year, and respectfully remarked that Joseph Chamberlain, who was mainly responsible for the absurd obstruction, is resting in America, while his followers have been obliged to curtail their holidays.

And the government's policy is to prevent the government from fulfilling their promise to the English masses of English legislation this year, and respectfully remarked that Joseph Chamberlain, who was mainly responsible for the absurd obstruction, is resting in America, while his followers have been obliged to curtail their holidays.

And the government's policy is to prevent the government from fulfilling their promise to the English masses of English legislation this year, and respectfully remarked that Joseph Chamberlain, who was mainly responsible for the absurd obstruction, is resting in America, while his followers have been obliged to curtail their holidays.

And the government's policy is to prevent the government from fulfilling their promise to the English masses of English legislation this year, and respectfully remarked that Joseph Chamberlain, who was mainly responsible for the absurd obstruction, is resting in America, while his followers have been obliged to curtail their holidays.

And the government's policy is to prevent